MALAYSIAN PETROLEUM CLUB

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

IAC is pleased to announce that the iconic and prestigious Malaysian Petroleum Club, an exclusive club situated on the 41st, 42nd and 43rd floors of Tower 2, PETRONAS Twin Towers, joined the network in July of last year.

The Club offers a variety of authentic gourmet cuisines, each providing a unique and unforgettable dining experience. Visiting members also enjoy fine wines and cocktails and the breathtaking views across the Kuala Lumpur cityscape. However, it is not just luxurious fine dining here, it is also the most prestigious address in the city for all your networking and meeting needs.

The members-only dining rooms, bar and other various lounges are open for breakfast, lunch and dinner six days a week. If you are looking for a more secluded environment, there are also many attractive private dining rooms, as well as other rooms for meetings and functions.

DO7 ECO CLUB HOUSE

Milan, Italy

Another new addition to the IAC network is the DO7 Eco Club House, located in the heart of the Brera district in Milan city center. The Club is completely committed to eco-sustainability and has a fondness for music, opera, culture and design.

DO7's unique location allows visitors to easily reach all main points of interest and highlights in Milan. It's members and guests can find plenty of options to manage their business or enjoy the city, thanks to a wide range of premium services.

The Club offers different meeting rooms with customizable set up: from one-to-one meeting areas to an auditorium with up to 90 seats. The Club also provides an elegant lounge with state-of-the-art technology where members can work in a co-working environment or in total privacy. On the 8th floor a stunning panoramic terrace is available to members as a place for meeting or relaxing. The Club also offers 62 rooms, including 6 suites, for IAC members stopping over in Milan for the night.

IAC members benefit from a 20 % discount on rates for accommodation, F&B and events facilities.

THE VANCOUVER CLUB

Vancouver, Canada

The Vancouver Club is situated in the heart of the downtown business district and within minutes of the best shops, theatres, galleries, hotels, and restaurants in Vancouver. The Aquarium, the Trade and Convention Centre, Stanley Park, the Gastown Historic District, city beaches, and a major transportation hub are all within walking distance. The Clubhouse is a 1913 Heritage 'A' building refurbished to its original Victorian colours and trim details. Visitors can ski the local hills in the morning and sail the waters of English Bay in the afternoon.

The club provides eight modern bedrooms with en-suite facilities, a grill room for casual dining, a rooftop terrace, a bar as well as two lounges. The Grill is the culinary heart of the club. It is also two restaurants in one elegant package. The bright, airy Atrium is ideal for a sunny lunch, while the moodier main Grill seduces with warmth and modern style. Often home to the club's more formal meals in the evenings, The Georgian Room also serves as a chic, if less formal, venue during the daytime. The club is open 7 days a week and for IAC members wishing to have a high-quality haircut, the club also has a professional barbershop on site.

CLUB INTERNATIONAL

Leipzig, Germany

Established in 1996 the Club International Leipzig was the first City Club of its kind in the eastern part of Germany. The primary aim of the Club is to encourage international understanding and dialogue of cultural/global issues. The Club considers itself as a platform for the intellectual exchange of ideas by people from all over the world, originating from economics, policy, culture, sports or science.

The restored historic Meyer's Villa in Leipzig offers IAC members a unique and charming setting in which it is easy to relax with a good book, or with a glass of wine and a cigar in cultured discussion. The distinctive club rooms feature exclusive and exquisite furniture and provide a unique flair for inspiring dialogue and interesting events. Reservations in advance are required, please book through the IAC website.

CIRCULO DE LA UNION

La Paz, Bolivia

The Circulo de la Union was founded in 1932 and follows the same style as many English Clubs of the same era. It is conveniently located in the centre of La Paz, in the artistic and bohemian district of Sopocachi. Its name expresses the spirit of the Club which seeks to bring together prominent figures from industry, commerce, law, art and politics. Since its inception, the Club's purpose has been to gather the most important figures of La Paz, to support the city's growth and provide a place for meeting to promote the exchange of ideas, projects and concerns. Over the years the Club has been recognised by notable Bolivian institutions and, in 2000, was granted the Special Services Award by the Honorable City Hall, for its support of the art and culture of Bolivia. The Club provides comfortable and appropriate environments for social events, business meetings, conferences, seminars and other various activities. The restaurant offers an extensive menu created by chefs who specialize in international gourmet food.

RANCAMAYA GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Bogor, Indonesia

Located about 60 km south of central Jakarta, Rancamaya is one of the few golf courses in Indonesia which has been built on a natural terrain. The course is currently ranked a 6th best in Indonesia by Top100 Golf Courses and joined the IAC network in September 2019. Here, the course designer, Ted Robinson, has taken full advantage of the beauty and breathtaking scenery the terrain offers. Eighteen holes surround a sparkling lake that lies in the exact center of the golf course. The excellent course maintenance, superb food and service levels of the club make it an exceptional experience for visitors.

Top executives of the Indonesian business world recognise the level of excellence of this manicured green paradise relatively close to the Central Business District. IAC members may now benefit from an exclusive Stay and Play package which includes a 2 day 1 night stay in a Superior Room with breakfast for two as well as a round of golf. Please get in touch at info@iacworldwide.com for more information.

CERCLE DE WALLONIE

Namur, Belgium

Located in a park more than 6 hectares in size, this beautiful mansion which overlooks the river Meuse, was formerly the home of a Belgian member of parliament. Following 2 years of renovation between 2002–2004, it is now home to another new addition to the IAC network, the Cercle de Wallonie. The Club is the first business club in Wallonia (French-speaking part of Belgium). It is a venue where the region's driving forces meet and voice their views.

The Club's amenities include several lounges offering guests a warm and friendly atmosphere where they can relax or plan a meeting, as well as fully equipped seminar and conference rooms. The restaurant offers exceptional and always seasonal products and provides its guests with an excellent wine list. Visiting members might want to step outside onto the panoramic terrace, which comes with a stunning view over the Namur region.
