SAN DOMENICO GOLF

Savelletri, Italy

San Domenico Golf offers an unparalleled golfing experience along the Adriatic coastline. Located between the Itria Valley and the port of Savelletri, this Mediterranean course spans 6,300 meters of lush land, surrounded by centenary olive trees and the ruins of ancient Egnathia.

With sea views from every hole, the course offers a unique challenge where winds from the Adriatic influence play. Designed by Andy Hagger, the course adheres to the highest USGA standards, featuring a par 72 layout that weaves through the natural beauty of Puglia. This championship course is home to the PGA European Challenge Tour Grand Final, with the terrain including fast greens, strategic bunkers, and Mediterranean flora.

Beyond the fairways, the clubhouse offers panoramic views of the Adriatic and a chance to unwind with traditional Apulian cuisine. Whether you're perfecting your swing or savouring the tranquil landscape, San Domenico Golf offers a perfect retreat.
